12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. | America

You're never too old to begin your Jedi training! Learn lightsaber combat choreography with the Jedi and Sith of Saber Guild's Kamino Temple. We'll teach you the choreography skills we use in our performances with a lightsaber capable of movie-quality combat. Participants must be 18+ or 13-17 with parent or guardian supervision.

Worldbuilding Through the Lens of Environmental Science: BUILD A PREDATOR

2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. | America

We discover new, amazing worlds by observing nature. When fantasy authors create a monster, they start by considering relationships in the natural world. In this workshop, we'll build a fantasy predator by considering the needs and habitat questions that impact animals in our own world.

Wellness for Geeks Who Sit by GeekGirlStrong

3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. | Furiosa

Are you a gamer, writer, cosplayer, artist, or person who spends long hours at a desk? This workshop will help you relieve the aches and pains those long hours can cause. Leave with a new set of skills in your health arsenal, including mobility stretches, strength movements, and nutritional tips! Note: This seated-movement workshop was created with various body types in mind. Many of the movements can be modified for individual needs!

Wig Workshop by Cosplay Repair Station

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. | America

Join the staff of the Cosplay Repair Station for a hands-on workshop all about wigs. We'll cover the basics of wearing, styling, and maintaining wigs—giving attendees an opportunity to try out various techniques on high-quality wigs. Whether you've been wearing wigs for years or have yet to even touch one, you're sure to learn something!

DIY Future! Writing and Performing Science Fiction on Stage

4:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. | Furiosa
